

The AFR/OFU Ag & Historic Conference offers members the opportunity to travel to some of the most beautiful, historic and agrarian places in the U.S. as well as internationally. Generally one domestic trip and one international trip are offered to member each year. Many members return to be part of the next slated adventure.

Recent U.S. tour locations have included the Oregon Coast, Louisiana and Washington D.C. International trips have included Montreal, Canada, Costa Rica, Ireland, Nova Scotia and Alaska.
