

AFR Youth Council Process

Council Members

During Senior Leadership Summit, five youth program participants are elected to the AFR Youth Advisory Council. These young Oklahomans represent AFR through the next year as they work side-by-side with the youth coordinator on projects in service to the youth of Oklahoma. These events include council leadership training, fall speech contests, AFR State Convention, leadership summit sessions and much more!

Election Process

1. Each student interested in running for council must fill out a written application at the beginning of leadership summit.
2. Each student who completed an application will interview with a panel of three judges during leadership summit.
3. Each council candidate will give a short campaign speech in front of their peers who will vote for the five students they believe will represent them the best.
4. Students will give a campaign speech alone.
5. No props will be used during the speech.

Requirements

1. You must be entering the 12th grade at the time of leadership summit.
2. You must have attended leadership summit at least two previous times.
3. You must be a current American Farmers & Ranchers policy holder.
